AN INDEX TO FRANCISCAN STUDIES

The FRANCISCAN STUDIES has gone through three distinct phases in the history of its publication. From 1924 until 1940, it was a series of monographs published by Franciscan authors and appearing at irregular intervals. Each number generally included only one monograph, but in a few numbers there are two or more. This first series is indexed in the appendix to the present general index.

The second phase of publication saw the FRANCISCAN STUDIES issued as a quarterly by the Franciscan Institute at St. Bonaventure University, during the period 1941 to 1962 inclusive, for most of which time it was published under the auspices of the Franciscan Educational Conference. The index to these volumes comprises the main section of the present special issue.

Beginning in 1963, FRANCISCAN STUDIES has appeared as an annual. None of the material contained in these annuals has been included in the present INDEX, but plans have been made to index them periodically in the future.

Special directions for the use of the single indices contained herein are furnished at the beginning of each index. In addition to these specific norms, however, the following general ones should be noted. The location of the various entries is cited by volume number (the first arabic numeral following the entry itself), year, and page numbers. Bracketed page numbers refer to the special anniversary issue comprising numbers 3—4 of the 1951 (eleventh) volume. Volumes 1 and 13 (1941 and 1953) were paginated separately for each issue, with the result that the number of the issue (indicated by n., followed by a numeral) had to be furnished for these volumes. N. 1 stands for the March issue; n. 2 for the June; n. 3 for the September; and n. 4 for the December issues. Nn. 2—3 indicates the June-September (combined) issue of 1953.

The present special issue is best placed after the twenty-second volume (1962), the last one included in the index it comprises.

The compiler would like to thank Doctor James P. Reilly, Jr., and Father Gedeon Gál, O.F.M., of the Franciscan Institute, and Father Irenaeus Herscher, O.F.M., Librarian of St. Bonaventure University, for their generous help.

I. INDEX OF AUTHORS

The following index includes, alphabetically according to last name (first name for Capuchins whose last name is unknown), the names of all authors who have contributed articles or signed "Miscellanea" items to the FRANCISCAN STUDIES, 1941—1962 inclusive. An asterisk after the name of an author indicates that he has also contributed material to the First Series of FRANCISCAN STUDIES (1924—1940); for the titles and location of these earlier articles, see the appendix to this Index.

III. INDEX OF SUBJECTS

The following index contains, in alphabetical order, all the subjects mentioned in the titles of articles and separately entitled miscellanea items found in FRANCISCAN STUDIES, 1941—1962 inclusive. An asterisk after a given subject indicates that there is further material to be found in the appendix, covering the Old Series of FRANCISCAN STUDIES, 1924—1940. Signed review articles, but not ordinary book reviews, have been included in this subject-index. Proceedings of the Franciscan Educational Conference have not been indexed, and untitled Franciscana items have been included only under the general heading, "Franciscana." First names have been anglicized; e. g., Pedro will be found under Peter, and Antonius under Anthony. The material in the articles has not been analyzed in producing this index; only the titles have been used, and hence all the subjects listed are treated ex professo in the places indicated.

IV. INDEX OF BOOKS REVIEWED

The following index includes a reference to all the books reviewed in the FRANCISCAN STUDIES, 1941—1962 inclusive. The entries are arranged in alphabetical order according to the last name of the author, editor or translator in accordance with the following norms:

1 — Where there are two or more authors, the item has been entered only under the name of the first author.

2 — Where the work reviewed is a modern edition or translation of an ancient or medieval work, it has been entered under the name of the modern editor or translator.

3 — Where there have been two or more editions or translations, on any of which the present edition is dependent, the work has been entered under the name of the first modern editor or translator.

4 — Where the work has been edited or published by a commission or group, the head of which is not mentioned in the review, the entry has been placed in a separate classification at the end of this index.

5 — Capuchin authors whose last name is unknown have been listed according to their first name.

6 — Sisters whose last names are unknown have been listed according to the name following Mary.

7 — Review articles of full-length have not been included here; see any of the three preceding indices for these.

Names of reviewers have been placed in parentheses after the title of the work reviewed.
